 OUR BUBBLES

Prosecco Sottoriva Col Fondo, Malibrán (Veneto)..... £32,00

Col Fondo, (Sur-lie) literally means "on the yeasts". This Prosecco has no added sulfites and it's characterized by a fine perlage and intense and complex notes of ripe fruit, bread crust and yeasts.

Monte Rossa, Franciacorta DOCG P.R. Brut Blanc de Blanc (Lombardy) £53,00

It was created to celebrate 35 years of the Estate, named after the founders of the Vinery with the same initials: Paola Rovetta and her husband Paolo Rabotti. It is a Blanc de Blancs, with an harmony between the amplitude, the structure, the complexity of reserve wine (35%) and elegance, smoothness and refinement typical of the Chardonnay (65%).

Cavalleri, Franciacorta DOCG Blanc de Blancs (Lombardy)..... £56,00

The cuvée is produced by blending wines derived from DOCG located on the hills around Erbusco in Franciacorta: most come from the most recent harvest available and 20% is derived from the previous years, specifically stored at low temperature. Brut Blanc de Blancs cuvée is a Chardonnay which shows great elegance and finesse, and a surprising evolutionary behaviour.

Cà del Bosco, Franciacorta Cuvée Prestige Brut (Lombardy)£62,00 (£40,00 cl 37,5)

Chardonnay 75% - Pinot Noir 15% - Pinot Blanc 10%. From one of the finest wine estates of the Region, founded in 1968. With a straw-yellow colour and with fine, abundant and persistent perlage. The aroma is fragrant and fruity with hints of peach, tangerine, almonds and bread crust. The intense flavour, fresh, fruity, citrusy.

Philipponnat Royale Réserve Non Dosé £82,00

It is a subtle variation on the emblematic cuvée of the Philipponnat maison. Pure cuvée (first pressing) of Pinot Noir (always the greater part of the mixture, from 40 to 50%), Chardonnay (30 to 35%) and Pinot Meunier (15 to 25%, always the smallest portion of the blend). It matures three years on the yeasts. The colour is pale gold, and it has lively, tiny, rapid bubbles. On the nose: vine flower, lime blossom, in the mouth a wonderful attack. Full flavoured, pleasantly winy, with elements of citrus and warm bread.

Louis Roederer Brut Premier £103,00

It is a blend of about 40% Pinot Noir, 40% Chardonnay and 20% Pinot Meunier. It combines wines made in oak barrels of the three grape varieties of the Champagne region, from different crus selected by Louis Roederer. It is aged for three years in the cellar and rest at least six months after the degorgement. Well balanced between youth and maturity, between seduction and character, between freshness and fruitiness, the Brut Premier is a finely structured wine, elegant and energetic, incredibly vibrant. Full, complex, modern and powerful at the same time, it remains a great classic.

* OUR SELECTION OF WHITES*

Wines in each category are listed in order of body and flavour: from light to rich

FRESH AND CRISP

Pecorino, Italo Pietrantonj (Abruzzo).....£29,00

The bouquet is delicately floral, with notes of citrus and tropical fruit. A generous-sized palate offers vibrant and crisp flavours.

Vermentino Marittimo, Antonio Camillo (Tuscany) £24,00

Freshness is the main feature of this Tuscan wine, thanks to an acidity, which is unusual for a wine from this Region, the Maremma, on the lower part of the province of Grosseto. On the noses white fruits and minerality while the mouth is tasty and refreshing.

Lugana, Ca' Lojera (Lombardy) £33,00

Melons and tangerines with mint accents and floral notes. Strong fruity personality on the palate.

AROMATIC

Soave Castelcerino, Cantina Filippi (Veneto) £28,00

Filippi has made outstanding wines for 45 years in the hills above Soave near Verona, and the production recently has fully turned to organic. This Soave well represents the values of the vinery: it's vibrant, tense and mineral with a strong savory vein and a unexpected long finish.

"Ronco Valene" Sauvignon Blanc, Sandro Fay (Lombardy)..... £41,00

Tropical fruit flavour of guava. Fine freshness and great length, great complexity and minerality.

Illivio, Livio Felluga (Friuli) £56,00

Lots of aromatic and floral notes. Crisp and fresh, well-balanced and with an excellent length of flavour.

RICH AND JUICY

Ciù Ciù, Verdicchio Classico, Arbinus (Certified Organic) (Marche) £26,00

A straw-yellow white wine with nose of lemons and limes, in the glass it's got pleasant flower perfume and exotic fruits scent. Full-bodied character and mineral backbone leads to a pleasant, refreshing finish..

Roero Arneis Vigne Sparse, Giovanni Almondo (Piedmont).....£36,00

Giovanni Almondo is locally known as Roero's finest white wine producer. Beautifully crisp and well-defined, this is a wonderful expression of Roero. Notes of flowers and pears lead onto a textured and fresh palate. A brilliant white.

Gavi "Rovereto", Azienda Agricola Ernesto Picollo (Piedmont) £29,00

This wine embodies the characteristics of the Gavi terroir, where fruitiness and minerality intermingle. In the vineyard a patient work of selection of the top quality grapes is carried out in spring to ensure the best results during the harvest. The nose stretches from mineral notes, to lemon and lime. Palate has a warm and zesty nice length.

Petite Arvine, Les Cretes (Aosta Valley) £36,00

Acacia flowers, hint of citrus, passion fruit and sage. Grapefruit and piercing minerality, long finish.

Chardonnay, Les Cretes (Aosta Valley) £37,00

Melon and papaya with almond milk. Lush, ripe fruit, bracing acidity and rich mineral finish.

Vigna Petrusa, Ribolla Gialla (Friuli)..... £34,00

At the nose it shows finesse, grassy aromas of flowers and stone fruit. At the palate it shows good acidity with medium finish.

Chardonnay, Planeta (Sicily) £50,00

Soft butterscotch and ripe banana, subtle oak characters. Precise, linear lingering finish.

Poggio alle Gazze dell'Ornellaia, Ornellaia (Tuscany) £84,00

70% Sauvignon Blanc, 16% Vermentino, 8% Verdicchio, 6% Viognier. It owes its elegant Mediterranean style to the Estate's unique microclimate. This gift of nature allows Poggio alle Gazze dell'Ornellaia, with its predominance of Sauvignon Blanc, to display a firm structure and ripe fruit while maintaining great finesse.

Terre Alte, Livio Felluga (Friuli) £92,00

Elderflower, almond, butter and spicy, vanilla depth. Fresh, lively acidity, sage and a citrus on the finish.

Capo Martino, Jermann (Friuli) £93,00

Friuli has had a history of producing light aromatic white wines of immense drinkability but of little interest outside the region. Silvio Jermann has almost single-handedly changed that. Silvio is widely considered to be a true 'artist' in the production of wines from his region, producing small quantities of finely honed wines usually pre-sold on allocation. His style is to bring out floral aromas and piercing varietal character along with subtlety and elegance, resulting in very long wines with good ageing potential.

* OUR SELECTION OF REDS*

Wines in each category are listed in order of body and flavour: from light to rich

BALANCED AND LIVELY

Chianti Podere Gamba, Az. Agr. San Ferdinando (Tuscany) £26,00

Podere Gamba is a toponym, found in old maps, where the Sangiovese grape has always been cultivated. This Chianti is complex to the nose with notes of purple forest, cherry, liquorice and coffee gradually emerge. The warm palate is immediately enveloped by soft tannins, good acidity, with a long and balanced ending. Fresh and fruity, with raspberries and hints of flowers. Medium-full body, with delicate tannins.

Rosso Conero, Villa Malacari, Malacari (Marche) £31,00

100% Montepulciano. The Grapes are selected by hand and placed carefully in small boxes then brought, within one and a half hours, to the cellar. Red and black cherry and berry fruits and hints of warming spice. Balanced and intense.

Roero Bricco Medica, Cascina Val del Prete (Certified organic) (Piedmont).....£42,00

100% Nebbiolo. Beautiful ruby with garnet rim. The nose shows floral aromas of violets, warm spices and wild berry fruits. The palate has a sweet intensity to the fruit, balanced by moderate tannins. Over time the Bricco Medica reveals gorgeous inner perfume that adds to the open-knit, attractive finish.

Le Serre Nuove dell'Ornellaia, Ornellaia (Tuscany) £79,00

The second wine of Ornellaia, Le Serre shares a similar Bordeaux-inspired blend to the flagship wine (Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot), but is produced mainly from the estate's younger vines, resulting in a softer, fresher style. It combines rich black fruit with silky tannins and a firm, well-structured feel, enhanced by a diverse aromatic profile, offering cedar, dried herb and tobacco leaf nuances.

Roero, Giovanni Almondo (Piedmont).....£44,50

Almondo is widely considered one of the foremost producers of wine in Piedmont's Roero. This 100% Nebbiolo wine shows a bouquet of characteristic rose petals, accompanied by fresh herbaceous notes of mint and fennel, with a nose of sweetened raspberry jam and red cherry pie. The nose of sweet berries and floral notes is met with an equally fruit forward palate, with tart acidity and firm tannins.

ROUND AND VELVETY

Cariglio Rosso, Tenuta Terre Nobili, Lidia Masera (Calabria) £32,00

Rich, round, intense and sweet spices. Full bodied and unripe fruitiness, acidity, complexity.

Trentangeli Rosso, 2013, Tormaresca (Certified organic) (Puglia) £37,00

This organic wine from Apulia region is made with Aglianico 70% Cabernet 20% Syrah 10% grapes. On the nose it has intense notes of red berries, violet and spices (cinnamon, black pepper, cloves). In the mouth it is round, harmonious, balanced with pleasant tannins and an excellent persistence.

Guado al Tasso "Il Bruciato", Marchesi Antinori (Tuscany) £43,00

Ripe red berry fruit, sweet spice and coffee. Silky tannins, sweet and spicy finish and aftertaste.

Marina Cvetic Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC S. Martino Rosso, Masciarelli (Abruzzo) £47,00

Blackcurrant, sweet tobacco, black pepper, dark chocolate, licorice. Dry, smooth, tannic, tasty

Ca Veja, Nebbiolo d'Alba, Paitin (Piedmont).....£50,00

Sublime wines are made at Paitin, typified across the board by their freshness, refined tannins, purity of fruit and terroir driven minerality. This Nebbiolo shows fine, intense aromas with notes of red berries and sweet spice. Warm, complex, full bodied, quite soft, fresh, persistent in the mouth.

L'Erta, Poggio della Bruna, Paolo e Lorenzo Marchionni (Tuscany) £59,00

100% Sangiovese. Explosive balsamic notes, Ripe black cherry and dry roses with a sweet tobacco

ROBUST AND RICH

Cannonau di Sardegna "Mamuthone", Giuseppe Sedilesu (Sardinia).....£34,00

This winery lies in the heart of the Sardinian mountains and this iconic wine (from 100% Cannonau grapes) it's a full expression of Mamojada's Cannonau character: clear notes of spice and ripe fruit, a dense and fresh palate with delicate and sweet tannins and a simply unique depth.

Barbera d'Alba Superiore, Livia Fontana (Piedmont).....£44,00

The Fontana family has been tending vines and pressing estate-grown grapes for over 150 years and 5 generations. The aroma is fresh and intense with currants and berries notes. Warm, full, rich and persistent taste, full body.

Nebbiolo d'Alba, Palladino (Piedmont)..... £44,00

Made from Nebbiolo grapes, it boasts the same noble lineage as Barolo, for which it can act as a prelude and an initiation. The aroma is harmonious with notes of violets and raspberries, the palate is tannic, soft, with good body and structure.

Barolo del Comune di Serralunga, Palladino (Piedmont).....£70,00

Traditional Barolo made with grapes from several vineyards, all within the Comune of Serralunga d'Alba. The nose is characterized by the variety of flavours, from citrus fruits to dried flowers, as well as notes of tobacco and hints of peach and raspberry. The palate is full-bodied and well-structured, characterized by a vigorous tannin.

Brunello di Montalcino, Frescobaldi (Tuscany) £75,00

Fruity, black cherry and strawberry preserve, notes of spices. Warm, slightly tannic, intense and long.

Barbaresco, Ceretto (Piedmont) £77,00

Dried cherries, violets, licorice, vanilla and spices. Tart cherries, rose, hints of truffles and impressive finish.

Barolo Parafada, Palladino (Piedmont).....£88,00

Made with grapes from the Parafada vineyard in Serralunga d'Alba, this wine shows a complex structure reflecting the particular characteristics of the terrain. Fragrant and inviting, with distinctive notes of rose, tangerine and violet, the palate has tannins of great quality, evolving into balsamic and floral aromas.

Amarone della Valpolicella, Allegrini (Veneto) £128,00

Ripe cherry, chocolate, herbs and woodsmoke. Round, balanced, smoky, dark chocolate, raisins, long finish.
